About: Conceived by choreographer Camille A. Brown, The Gathering serves as an open forum for intergenerational black female artists to support one another and to advocate for greater cultural equity and acknowledgement in the contemporary dance world.

The Gathering 2020 Workshops are presented by Camille A. Brown & Dancers in partnership with The Field, Dance/NYC, Gibney, Angela's Pulse, and The International Association of Blacks in Dance. Facilitated by Shawn René Graham, Deputy Director, Programs and Services at The Field.

The Gathering 2020 Workshops will include workshops and panels:

10:00-11:30am | I. Government and Institutional Funding Sources
Workshop led by Shawn René Graham of The Field

You have already received funding from some very notable sources like the Jerome Foundation and Rockefeller Brothers Fund. It put some pep in your step, but what's next? Walk away with useful tools and key strategies for cultivating new funders and submitting competitive grant proposals.

11:40-12:30 | Panel I - with Foundation and Institutional Funders
Brandi Stewart, Doris Duke Charitable Foundation
Joan Finkelstein, Harkness Foundation for Dance
Salem Tsegaye, New York Community Trust
Ana Fiore, Lower Manhattan Cultural Council

Dance/NYC is looking for enthusiastic and eager volunteers for this upcoming event. Register as a volunteer at dance.nyc/volunteer.

Dance/NYC's justice, equity, and inclusion initiatives are made possible with leadership support from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. Dance/NYC convening is made possible, in part, by support from the Howard Gilman Foundation and the Mertz Gilmore Foundation, and by public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, in partnership with the City Council, the New York State Council on the Arts and from the National Endowment for the Arts.
