What role does research and data collection have in arts advocacy? How has data historically represented or underrepresented the arts sector, and what are the impacts of this storytelling? Join Alejandra Duque Cifuentes and colleagues for a conversation on the role data plays in moving resources and creating policy to support artistry in the US.

As a part of Gibney's Deeper Duet series on Tuesday, January 31, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. ET, Former Dance/NYC Executive Director Alejandra Duque Cifuentes and Research Consultant Carrie Blake will discuss the Dance Industry Census and the role data plays in moving resources and creating policy to support artistry in the U.S.
