This event has already occurred.

If you were in attendance, please take the Post-Event Survey.

A Research Performance Event + Community Gathering for the Dance Industry

Join Dance/NYC as they unveil up-to-date data compiled from the Dance Industry Census and Roundtable Discussion Series. This research performance event and community gathering for the NYC dance industry will give participants and stakeholders from across the field the opportunity to learn more about what the Census found, what it means for the future of the dance industry, and what actions they can take to build a thriving dance ecosystem.

A part of Dance/NYC's Dance Workforce Resilience \(DWR\) Initiative, the event is curated by Alejandra Duque Cifuentes. It will feature performances by Sydney L. Mosley Dances and Ladies of Hip Hop, remarks by members of the DWR Advisory Group, and a community meal.

- Titles and names of speakers will appear in lower thirds on your screen and via chat
- Slides with unique content will be shared directly to the livestream
- The ASL interpreter will be visible via small picture in picture on the screen when media is being displayed or in camera feed with speakers.

Access Requests

The event will include ASL interpretation, Closed Captioning, and Audio Description. If there is anything we should know that can help ensure you have an accessible experience, and to help us connect you to the correct service provider, please confirm if you will make use of any of these services by contacting the Dance/NYC Programs Team at least two weeks prior to the event via email at programs@dance.nyc or call (212) 966-4452 (voice only). Requests made less than two weeks in advance of the event are not guaranteed.

Event Partners

Sanctuary Space Statement

Dance/NYC and its venue partners declare the Dance Industry Census Roundtable Discussion Series to be sanctuary spaces for the duration of each event. This acts on Dance/NYC's commitment to justice, equity, and inclusion. In declaring a sanctuary space, Dance/NYC and venue partners commit to:

- Providing a safe space for all - a space free of discrimination; a space where people will not be mistreated because of their race, ethnicity, gender or gender expression, immigration status, sexual orientation, disability, or religious faith (or lack thereof).

- Protect any information on immigration status of all members, staff, artists, and visitors in any way possible and to the best of our abilities.
- Invite participation in art, culture, and education in a place free of fear.

COVID-19 Statement

Dance/NYC is committed to maintaining an environment that prioritizes the health and safety of staff, volunteers, participants, and attendees at its events. Per New York City Guidelines, cultural venues are allowed to determine their own policies regarding masks and vaccination.

Per CDC, OSHA, and cultural sector recommendations, and the policies of our venue partners, we have outlined the following guidelines. These are subject to change based on evolving guidance from officials and Dance/NYC's ongoing assessment of these policies.

Summary of Guidelines

All attendees, participants, staff and volunteers are required to:

- Wear a KN95 or N95 mask that covers both nose and mouth, except for brief moments to eat or drink in designated areas.
- Practice hand washing and hygiene
- Show proof of vaccination status as outlined and/or
- Show proof of negative COVID-19 test (at home/antigen/PCR) with:
 - A photo of an at home rapid COVID-19 test with a time stamp
 - A receipt of a lab Antigen or PCR test with confirmed negative results

Dance/NYC will provide KN95 masks on site with clear bars for ease of lip reading. Speakers and performers may appear without masks but will test day-of event.

Acknowledgement of Risk

There is an inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 in any public space where people are present. Dance/NYC cannot guarantee that you will not be exposed to COVID-19 at in-person convenings. By attending the event, you voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID-19 and agree not to hold Dance/NYC, or any of its trustees, directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, or volunteers liable for any illness or injury.

- Dance/NYC staff and volunteers reserve the right to ensure compliance with these guidelines through verbal and written reminders. If compliance is not possible participants or attendees will not be able to enter the in-person event and/or will be asked to leave.
- If you have questions or concerns about safety practices please contact the Dance/NYC Programs Team at programs@dance.nyc. Dance/NYC staff will also be easily identifiable during the event should you have questions upon arriving at the venue.
