REGRANTING

Dance/NYC delivers financial resources to the dance community in its role as a regrantor, delivering funds and filling gaps in access and investment. Underpinned by our values of justice, equity, and inclusion, our regranting programs seek to address and repair systemic failures that have historically hindered equitable investment opportunities.

Active Regranting Programs

- New York City Dance Rehearsal Space Subsidy Program (RSS)

The RSS Program makes affordable rehearsal space available to dance makers in critical need to support the creation and development of their work

- Dance Advancement Fund (DAF)

DAF supports small-budget dance makers, catalyzing and supporting artistic development and to that end, contributes to the field's overall diversity, sustainability, and health

- Disability, Dance, Artistry, Dance and Social Justice Fellowship (DDA Fellowship)

The DDA Fellowship recognizes the critical role that disabled dance workers and arts practitioners play in social justice movements. In so doing ensuring these workers are supported while continuing to center disability as an artistic and generative force.

Past Regranting Programs

- Disability, Dance, Artistry, Fund (DDA Fund)

The DDA Fund generates dance making and performance by and with disabled artists, advancing artistic innovation and excellence-and, by extension, further disability rights

- Coronavirus Dance Relief Fund (CDRF)

CDRF meets the urgent need for dance-focused emergency funds and mitigates the growing impact of the COVID-19 Coronavirus outbreak on individual freelance dance workers and dance making organizations.

- NYC Dance Response Fund

The NYC Dance Response Fund was established to meet needs in dance following Superstorm Sandy.
