recommend it. What I appreciated me honored how we all came to be here	orld premiere at Harlem Stage choreographed by Jawole Willa Jo Zollar and Nora Chipaumire. Ihighly ost about the work was that it honored history black American history and American history at large. It - no matter what our background. The work told a deeply meaningful story: In order to cross or even are going you have to bare it all and even then, those who you depended on, those who supported you, at with you.
So with that in mind, today I share a video of dance that honors history and honors the path that allowed us to arrive where we are. "In Gratitude" danced by Ronald K. Brown for Katherine Dunham. Enjoy!
