Last night, the Junior Committee hosted our first Monday Mix Up! Gathered together from 6:30-8:30 at Forum in Union Square, our guests had the chance to mingle with arts leaders from Student Advocates for the Arts and Emerging Leaders of New York Arts. With an extended happy hour, half off appetizers for the first 10 to arrive, and conveniently located super close to the plethora of Union Square trains, Forum was quite the forum for spirited conversation!

Missed us last night?! We will be back the 2nd Monday of every month. Same place, same time, but new groups to mingle with. Hope to see you in these pictures next time!
