

Thursday, May 10, 2012

LOOKING FOR PRODUCTION & ADMINISTRATIVE INTERN!

All interested applicants please submit a resume today to ccdt@claremcook.com

► Share | Print | Download

Clare Cook Dance Theater seeks a production intern to assist the company in preparations for it's upcoming performances at the New York Musical Theater Festival (NYMF) in July 2012. Intern will work directly with Clare Cook, artistic director, to plan, organize and execute all administrative and production elements involved with NYMF including but not limited to press and marketing, fundraising, social media, ticketing, website updates, and more. This opportunity would be a very hands on approach to producing an original dance theater piece as well as give invaluable insight into the New York Musical Theater Festival and all that's involved in presenting work with this organization. Find out more about the company here: www.claremcook.com Position begins immediately and goes until July 31, 2012. 5-10 hours a week and applicants should have their own computer.

All interested applicants please submit a resume today to ccdt@claremcook.com

< back

previous listing • next listing