DIRECTOR OF CHEERLEADING

Keisha Saddler worked with the FXFL in starting the Brooklyn Bolts Cheerleading team and was hired to Direct the first official squad this year. Keisha has been a part of professional cheerleading since 2002. While attending Indiana University in Bloomington, Keisha joined the NBA Indiana Pacers Pacemates in 2002. In 2005, Keisha was hired as a Company dancer for the California Ballet Company in San Diego, California. With no NBA team in San Diego, she decided to enter the NFL and joined the San Diego Charger Girls team in 2005. After dancing professionally in Los Angeles, Keisha took a chance on New York. With the passion for football still in her, she joined the NFL New York Jets Flight Crew Cheerleaders in 2012. With years of experience behind her, Keisha is ready to Direct the first official Brooklyn Bolts Cheerleading team.
