

June, 29-30, 2021

Abun-Dance

Company: Ninja Ballet
Venue: Anita's Way
Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Saul Thomas

"Warrior Woman" a contemporary dance and martial arts piece for four dancers, will include elements of ballet and contemporary dance, as well as Ninjutsu and Kenjutsu, Kobujutsu, Shaolin Kung Fu, Kali/Eskrima, and martial arts weapons forms, including long staff and sai. Through dance, the Warrior Woman will teach them to transform negative past experiences into the fuel that will awaken them to their true feminine potential, enabling them to become strong enough to break through the obstacles that once held them down, to become the Warrior Woman within. Free event presented by ChaShaMa at Anita's Way, as part of the Immigrant Artist Dance Award 2021. Performers Elisa Toro Franky, Shoko Haramura, Doron Perk, Seira-Soraya, Shoko Tamai, With live music by Michael Brown and Will Catanzaro.

Our mission is to inspire appreciation and awareness of the beauty and strength of the natural human form through classical dance and traditional martial arts, bridging movement styles between East and West. Established in NYC by Shoko Tamai in 2017, Ninja Ballet has performed internationally and all over the city. Ninja Ballet presented work in 2019 at The Edinburgh Festival Fringe as part of the 77th International Choreographer's Showcase, and has participated in the APAP Booking Dance Festival, "Collective Thread" with ModArts Dance Collective, KoDaFe in NYC, the New York Chinese Dance Festival, "Borrowed Light" at Nuyorican Poet's Cafe, Salon Series #63 with Sachiyo Ito Dance Company, Dance Brooklyn with Purelements Dance Company, and the annual ChaShaMa Gala event. Sybarite Collective selected Ninja Ballet in 2020 for the LoveIsLoveWorldwide Artist Relief Fund, and in 2021, ChaShaMa awarded Ninja Ballet with the Immigrant Artist Dance Award and space grant.

Ninja Ballet
137 W.42nd st. btw. 6th/Broadway
New York, NY, 10036

Schedule
June 29, 2021: 6:30pm
June 30, 2021: 6:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing