CHULSOO KIM & RIDMOS

"Wonderfully exhibited crossroads of genres" - pianist Vardan Ovespian

Tickets: FREE (w/ online RSVP)

Chulsoo Kim & ridMos, well known as "the best Hip Hop Jazz band" in Korea, shows how the music of New York City connects to the music of Korea, transcending geographic boundaries. Not only performing jazz standards, Chulsoo Kim & ridMos provides fresh jazz interpretations of each song performed, from traditional Korean children's songs to new compositions.

Chulsoo Kim & ridMos has become a pioneering group of the jazz scene in Korea and are known for the strength of each individual member, all of them being the top live session artists in the Korean music scene. Each member has led their own band and been taking on significant roles in the greater Korean music scene as solo musicians and even K-pop recording artists. Chulsoo Kim & ridMos features members who are graduates of renowned Berklee School of Music and they have performed not only in international jazz festivals, but also are regular performers for major TV broadcast programs.
