Movement Research partners with the Trisha Brown Dance Company to host the first weekly ongoing Company Class taught by a rotating cast of former company members.

Trisha Brown Dance Company class will begin with a warm-up to integrate the breath and full dimension of the body, movement exercises will focus on undoing places of tension and holding. Mapping the joints of the body will be emphasized to enable clear and efficient movement pathways in preparation for learning phrase material from Trisha Brown's repertory, that encompasses quick qualitative shifts and complex points of initiation.

*Please note that the location of this class may change from Eden's Expressway to another Movement Research location. Please continue to check this event webpage for up to date location details.

Accessibility: Please contact Julienne Rencher, juliennerencher@movementresearch.org or (212) 598-0551 (voice only) for access requests or questions.

All classes are subject to change. For the most up-to-date information, please consul
