Mission Statement

- To create performances that are witty, soulful, intriguing, intelligent and powerful.
- To choreograph original dance works of artistic distinction performed by dancers with mixed abilities.
- To present new, exciting, challenging and inspiring contemporary dance performances to widest possible audiences.
- To encourage the integration and inclusion of people with disabilities in dance and in society.

Program Statement

Broadening the perception of dance: Dancers engage in creative movement to create educational and entertaining pieces on the culture of disability to give audiences a profound experience.
