I am looking for eight to eleven dancers, male and female, for a new work to be premiered this fall. Must be technically proficient with a strong understanding of performance and basic acrobatic skills (handstands, forward rolls).

Also casting one solo role for a particularly magnetic female character dancer.

Compensation TBD. Future engagements likely.

The final audition will take place:

Sunday, September 26

10a.m.-12p.m.

Chez Bushwick, 2 fl (304 Boerum St)

Buzz 11

Bring a headshot and CV.

Evvie is a dancer and choreographer living in Sunnyside, Queens. Highly experimental with a strong classical background, she has shown original works at The Evergreen State College and the Eagle's Hall in Olympia, WA, and Palmetto A.I.R. in Brooklyn, NY, as well as site-specific works in both cities. Evvie has been a recipient of a Florida Dance Festival scholarship and, most recently, American Dance Festival's 2010 Young Artists Scholarship.

"Evvie is one of the most gifted dancers I have met in four decades of international professional work as an artist and teacher... I believe that she will become a choreographer who will make meaningful contributions to our world."

--Rob Esposito, former principal dancer, Nikolais Dance Theatre
