Dance Company Seeks Intern

Have you ever wanted to learn the ropes from an Artistic Director who has a real knack for business? This is your opportunity to learn how to run a dance company including: marketing, communications, development, press outreach, cultivating donors, business development, social media, traditional media, grant writing, website maintenance, building an audience, mass mailings, etc. These are skills that are applicable in any field. If you are a choreographer and are looking to build these skills for yourself to launch your own projects and/or company, you will be a great match.

Internship is unpaid. 3-4 hours per week. Start immediately.

Can work from home. Must have a computer, phone, internet access, fluent in Microsoft Office and English.

Please send an inquiry email with your resume to Jessie Feller at jessiefeller@gmail.com.

VaBang! Dance Company is a bi-coastal modern company founded in 2007 and based in NYC and SF.
