Call for all choreographers

Founded in 2008 by Dancer and Choreographer Ursula Verduzco.

We are proud to have been in the forefront by creating the first annual Latin Choreographers Festival in NY dedicated to empower our community.

The Latin Choreographers Festival has the mission to present and showcase in NYC the work of talented and innovative Latin choreographers through an environment where the general public, the International Dance Community and the Latin Community can feel welcomed and empowered. Giving also the opportunity to one non-Latin choreographer or Company per year to be presented as a guest in our Festival.

Through concert dance and the styles of Contemporary Ballet, Modern Dance and Contemporary Dance, choreographers will be able to show their work to an audience that will benefit from the experience of seeing different kinds of work and points of view from artists of various Latin backgrounds.

This up-and-coming dance festival is in its fourth year, proudly presenting the work of established, rising and new talented choreographers from NYC and abroad. Participants have included choreographers from: Mexico, Colombia, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Chile, Spain, among others.

This year The Latin Choreographers Festival will take place at Baruch Performing Arts Center, located at: 55 Lexington Av. and 24th St. New York, NY 10010 on August 4th, 5th and 6th, 2011.

*We are in search for performance ready pieces, original choreography, in the style of Contemporary Ballet, Modern and Contemporary Dance.

*Pieces should not exceed 10 minutes in duration.

*Submissions are being received from March 1st to May 28th, 2011 and selected applicants will be notified by June 1st, 2011 to be a part of 3 performances August 4th, 5th and 6th, 2011.
