

Sunday, April 17, 2011

male dancer needed for dance performance project

Launch Movement Experiment Audition RSVP info@launchmovementexperiment.com

► Share | Print | Download

Launch Movement Experiment, a Brooklyn-based dance company co-directed by Liz Riga and Rachel Mckinstry, is currently seeking a male dancer for a position with the company. The company will be premiering an evening length work in September 2011 in Brooklyn. Applicants should be technically skilled, have a unique personal style, and be comfortable improvising in solo and group forms. The rehearsal environment is personal and highly imaginative.

Rehearsals begin mid-May. Paid performance.

For more info on the company, please visit:

launchmovementexperiment.com

launch-me.blogspot.com

find us on facebook

Audition: May 7th

Callback: May 8th @3p

Please come prepared to show a short movement idea (2-3 minutes) that best represents you as an artist. We will also ask you to improvise in solo and group forms.

For audition location and time slot, please RSVP to: info@launchmovementexperiment.com

Launch Movement Experiment Audition RSVP

info@launchmovementexperiment.com

< back

previous listing • next listing