MixTape Dance, a new contemporary dance company, is now holding auditions for its upcoming season and premiere of repertoire in November 2011.

Director Anneliese Kappey fuses styles of contemporary and modern to create a commercial style of dance using classical as well as popular music.

Looking for dancers with strong technique and a great sense of musicality. Partnering skills are a plus.

Dancers should be available for a maximum of 8 hours of rehearsal a week. Hours vary. Paid performances.

Audition Information

Date: Tuesday, June 14

Time: 7:15 pm to 9:00 pm

Place: Steps on Broadway

Annex 2 – 2nd floor

Please be prepared to learn choreography. Bring current headshot, resume, and reel if available.

Callback will consist of an interview with the director, which will be scheduled for a later date, according to your availability.
