TrioDance is looking for a self-motivated individual to join the company administratively. An intelligent dancer in the city who respects modern dance and is interested in marketing and fundraising would prove to be a grand fit. Experience with social media, web design, video editing, and excellent writing skills are also preferred. The position includes working closely with the Artistic Directors, maintenance of web presence and social media, and assistance with events and fundraising. No more than 10 hours per week are required.

To Apply:

send your cover letter and resume to triodancecollective@gmail.com with "Internship" as the subject.
