Celebration of Life! "Be-In" Artists Commemorating 9/11

"Celebration of Life!" - a dance-percussive-art "Happening" - features Sticks & Stones healing ritual artist Judith Z. Miller's primal wearable art and sculpture made from trees and stones, set to a live soundscape of global rhythms by Music for the Masses DJ Neva Wartell, in Park Slope's lush St. Marks/Warren Street Community Garden.

"Celebration of Life" will include dancers in body paint wearing Judith's handmade, one-of-a-kind amulets, moving throughout the garden with her "Sacred Staffs" made from the roots and trunks of trees. Dancers will be accompanied by music spun by DJ Neva along with live percussion. The community will be invited to participate.

CONTACT: CelebrationOfLifeNYC@gmail.com and put the word "DANCER" in the subject line.

Jazz improvisational and devotional vocalist Deborah Shelton, who has been teaching singing and vocal improvisation for over twenty-five years, will lead a song circle combining vocal improvisation and multi-part songs of faith, hope and love.

Artist, designer, muralist Jim Su will paint the dancers' bodies.

Dancers are invited to honor the earth by creating movement in response to the song "MANKIND" by MAURI, accompanied by live music.
