I am a recent graduate of the Conservatory of Dance at SUNY Purchase, and have been invited to show a piece I choreographed while in school at the WestFest Dance Festival, which will take place at the Cunningham Theater during the final few weeks that it is open. I am looking to replace a male dancer in my cast, and am seeking someone of similar caliber who can learn quickly. The performance dates are December 9th and 11th. The piece is somewhat theatrical and dramatic, and the movement is fairly simple and released. We will probably hold 2-3 rehearsals with the entire cast, which we can work around your schedule. I can provide minimal compensation. You will be joining a very friendly and talented cast!

Here is a link to the piece on youtube, if you would like to see the movement you will be doing:

Please email me with a resume, brief description of your background and availability, and a video clip of you dancing if possible.
