Do you remember that great work that you only showed once at Open Perform?
Do you have a piece of work from years ago that you just rediscovered and never had a platform for?
What's that old work over there on the floor? I think it looks like it needs another airing.
Bring us your favorite works that have never been produced. (15 mins maximum).

Performance will be the evening of Sunday, July 15, at Triskelion Arts in Williamsburg. Tech will be earlier on the same day.

This series is looking at the collection of work that time has kicked to the curb. Work that has been left or forgotten and yet still holds some excitement, some sparkle, some life and freshness that continues to call us back to it.

Do you have some of this work?

Work that needs a breath of fresh air, an escape from under the bed, some quick mouth to mouth, a revival.

We are interested for ourselves in what happens both to the work and ourselves as we dig back into work with a new perspective.

What do you learn about yourself in returning to an old work from a new place?

How are we changed by addressing now, work that we made when we were not yet this version of ourselves?

How is the work informed by our distance from it and our experience?

If you are interested in tackling or are tickled by any of these questions please email us at creaturetheater@gmail.com by Monday, June 18, with:

+ Your Name

+ Your Company Name

+ Your email address

+ A sample of the work that you would like to revive (no longer than 15mins)

+ A short description of the work.

+ A $10 application fee (to our paypal: "creaturetheater@gmail.com", or email us for snailmail address for checks)

Thank you!
