New York's premiere burlesque troupe is looking to add brilliant Asian, Latina and African-American performance artists to our roster. If you submitted earlier this spring we'll be in touch with you this week!

We are looking for ladies with artistic vision, passion and creativity. Dance, theater and voice training are great but most important is a strong commitment to bring your ideas to life and work in a supportive team. We will help you shape your ideas and blossom as a burlesquer.

We have frequent, well attended shows in New York and our out of town bookings are growing. Travel gigs are on the college circuit, self-produced shows, and private parties. Things are picking up and we need some more fierce, fabulous women of color on the team.

If you are interested please send a headshot, resume and an introduction to your art practice. Let us know what inspires you and your areas of interest like politics, art, music. Also feel free to ask any questions.

Nudity & Adult themes.
