

Sunday, March 24, 2013

Free Dance Class in Harlem!

for more information on RDC contact Julie Petrusak at jpetrusak@gmail.com

► Share | Print | Download

Riverbank Dance Collective is kicking off its Spring Season by offering a free dance class to the public!

This workshop blends modern dance and jazz techniques with urban stylings. No prior dance experience required, just a desire to get down and move! All students are encouraged to participate in the Student Showcase Performance at the end of the Series (must attend min. 5 classes to perform). Taught by RDC Artists Stephen Christopher Contreras, Julie Petrusak, and Kelly Hamlin.

THURSDAYS 7:30PM-9PM
April 4th- June 6th
Riverbank State Park
Cultural Complex II
679 Riverside Drive (at 145th Street)

Take the 1 train to 145th street and walk west to the river. BX19 bus to Riverbank Park.

Registration Opens March 19th! All Students must register through Riverbank State Park. There is a onetime registration fee for new members of the park ($14 adults/teen, $11 senior citizens/physically challenged)

To register call (212) 694-3634. Class Code 143360-04, Section 1A. Registration Forms are available online at <http://nysparks.com/parks/93/details.aspx> (click on the 2013Spring/Summer Program Guide)

Riverbank Dance Collective (RDC) is a dance organization that aims to strengthen the community at large by making the performing arts immediately accessible to all. Through a partnership with Riverbank State Park, RDC offers free classes and affordable performances to NYC school groups, senior citizens, and the general public. RDC believes that dance, and all performing arts have the power to educate, inspire, and empower people of all ages, and over all strengthen the community.

for more information on RDC contact Julie Petrusak at jpetrusak@gmail.com

< back

previous listing • next listing