The Movement Workshop Group will be holding auditions for their upcoming work "Racine D'or." For more information on the company, go to www.movementworkshopgroup.org

Racine D'or is a collaborative work inspired by Louisiana folk tales - a modern day Southern mythology using contemporary dance and movement theater. Choreographed by Leslie Guyton and Stephanie Jingle. Music composed by Grammy-nominated Cedric Watson et Bijou Creole as well as Colin Summers. Rehearsals begin immediately for a residency in March, and the premiere in July. The production will then tour in the fall and spring of 2013/2014.

CASTING

LOUIS - African-American male dancer/actor

The role requires a dancer with strong technique, ability to improvise in rehearsals and contribute actively to a collaboration, and a background in acting. Like a silent movie, the roles will not require speaking but will require clear storytelling told through the body and face. Additionally, because of the collaborative process and length of rehearsal/development, we are looking for someone who is easy to work with. If this role seems appropriate for you please contact us for an audition slot.

AUDITION TIME/LOCATION - will be emailed to you when the audition is confirmed.
