

Thursday, April 25, 2013

Graphic Design Intern

Marketing & Communications Director, Fernando Maneca e-mail: Fernando@bax.org

► Share | Print | Download

BAX Brooklyn Arts Exchange is offering a summer internship for Graphic Design students currently enrolled in their Junior or Senior year. Please visit <http://bax.org/internships/> for more information.

This internship is an excellent opportunity for graphic design majors to explore and expand their design capabilities via hands-on experience, including creating in-house flyers, posters, performance programs and help maintain our current website.

Recognized nationally for its vital work in developing artists, and for its excellence in arts education, BAX/ Brooklyn Arts Exchange is a multifaceted performing arts organization in Park Slope, Brooklyn.

Start Date: May 13, 2013

Part time: 20-24 hours per week

Academic credit and a modest stipend available.

Please email cover letter, resume and links to work samples/portfolio to BAX's Marketing & Communications Director, Fernando Maneca, at: Fernando@bax.org

Marketing & Communications Director, Fernando Maneca e-mail:
Fernando@bax.org

< back

previous listing • next listing