ODC is hiring one female dancer for 2013-14 contract with substantial professional and touring experience, extensive ballet and modern training, partnering skills and a hardworking and creative spirit.

Those interested should apply to attend the Inside ODC Summer Audition Workshop, which serves as a preliminary audition to ODC/Dance. The workshop is an excellent way to experience ODC's movement style and creative working process, which for over 40 years has been characterized by intellectual scope and physical challenge. Many workshop dancers have been invited to join the company. During this week, participants will work closely with the ODC dancers and artistic directors, studying technique; discussing articles on dance and art; exploring choreographic ideas and performing repertory. Select dancers will be asked to return on Saturday, June 22nd, to work with ODC Company Dancers from 3-6pm.

Application Deadline: May 8
