

Saturday, June 8, 2013

Contemporary and Hip Hop Dancers for Large-Scale Experimental Dance Film

anji@aplusproductionsnyc.com

► Share | Print | Download

A+ Productions is casting for "Tipping the Scale", an cinematic dance film shot in a church.

Auditioning contemporary and contemporary hip hop dancers for 30 person ensemble.

Also auditioning for Male lead age 18 - 30:

Contemporary hip hop dancer with strong freestyle who can portray "dark innocence" and tension. The lead will carry an abstract narrative and be featured in several solo shots. Males auditioning for lead should prepare a two-minute hip hop freestyle to a classical song.

Dancers should be available for four June rehearsals and shoot date in early July.

Auditioning Thursday and Friday, June 13th and 14th. Please email for more info and specify interest as contemporary, hip hop, or lead

anji@aplusproductionsnyc.com

< back

previous listing • next listing