Known for his wit, intelligence, ingenuity, and uncanny physical humor, Seán Curran successfully blends myriad influences into a purely original style. A champion Irish step dancer in his native Boston, Curran went on to become a leading dancer (and Bessie Award winner) with the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, and later a cast member of STOMP! In 2012, Seán Curran Company was chosen by DanceMotion USA (produced by the Brooklyn Academy of Music) to perform and teach throughout Central Asia as cultural ambassadors of the US State Department.
