Short-term intern for C. Eule Dance

caronowl@yahoo.com ► Share | Print | Download

C. Eule Dance, now in it's 12th year, will be performing a site-specific work on August 29th and 30th (this month.) We are looking for an intern to help with general duties during rehearsals and performances including stage-managerial and front-of-house representation of the company as well as some administrative and gala event planning duties in the remaining couple of weeks.

A small stipend is available. For more info on the company, please visit:
