Award winning choreographer and film maker, Christina Sukhgian Houle, is seeking persons interested in movement exploration for an upcoming performance at Movement Research Judson Church. All participants must be available for one rehearsal on October 20th from 12-6pm and for the performance on October 21st from 4-10pm. The performance is an abstraction of the Rite of Spring that will include text from movies, lectures, political rallies and pop songs. Additionally large sculptural costumes and kinetic sets will be used to activate the space.

Participants will be asked to perform using gestural movements and everyday vocalizations as part of an ensemble. Performers of all body types and experiences are encouraged to apply. To be considered please contact Ms Houle at beingbelushi@gmail.com to set up a phone interview. More information on Ms Houle and her past work can be found at christinasukhgianhoule.weebly.com.
