Spiegelworld is seeking diverse female dancers for a new circus/performance creation in Las Vegas, with choreography by Gideon Obarzanek (Chunky Move).

Rehearsals will begin in December, with performances from January-December 2014. All candidates must be willing and available to relocate for a one-year contract.

Performer requirements: both modern and commercial dance background; professional performance experience; interest in making material is ideal (but not essential); comfort moving in a site-specific context.

Auditions will be held in New York City on Oct 31 by invitation only. We will contact those selected with time and location.

Please submit your resume along with a current photo/headshot. You may also send optional links to online videos of your work.

Send all materials to josh.aviner@spiegelworld.com with "Spiegelworld audition [YOUR LAST NAME]" in the subject line.
