The Bolshoi Ballet Academy Teacher Certification Program is an eight-day intensive designed to immerse educators of classical ballet in an authentic training program led by Master Teachers from the Bolshoi Ballet Academy in Moscow. Training will include workshops, lectures, master classes, and independent tutorials. Based on the Academy's respected curriculum, the program provides instruction in systematic, methodic, and holistic methods for classical dance instruction. In 2014, the program will take place August 3 - 10 in New York City. The cost of the program is $1950, which includes registration, participation in all classes & exams, and materials.
