Celebrating 5 years of presenting Young (ages 18-25) Choreographers in all genres of dance at Symphony Space in NYC, The Young Choreographer's Festival is currently accepting applications for its June 14th, 2014 show.

Applications available on our website: www.youngchoreographersfestival.com

YCF presents deserving young artists at Symphony Space and provides educational programming, such as a mentor, private classes, and a talk back panel with industry professionals (this year's is being presented by Advisory Board Member Maurice Brandon Curry).

YCF Alums have gone on to receive commissions from The Joffrey Ballet, The Ailey School, Fire Island Dance Festival, Missouri Contemporary Ballet, and LaGuardia High School of the Performing Arts, among other prestigious institutions.
