THE BROADWAY DANCE LAB is a new, non-profit organization founded by Broadway choreographer, Josh Prince ("Shrek, The Musical," and "Beautiful: The Carole King Musical"). BDL employs dancers of all backgrounds and encourages choreographers and other writers of Musical Theater to incorporate and/or experiment with dance in a private, artistically safe space. At the end of this month-long workshop, the dances created will be performed in an invited showing for respected members of the field. THE BROADWAY DANCE LAB is a sponsored project of FRACTURED ATLAS.
