Gerard & Kelly are auditioning performers in pairs/couples for their performance score Timelining to be presented at The Kitchen in New York City this spring, as part of their exhibition running from March 13th–April 19th.

The score for Timelining requires two performers who have a preexisting relationship (couples, siblings, parent/child, non-romantic partners, collaborators, etc.).

We are seeking pairs of performers who have:

- previous performance experience (not necessarily together) in dance, theater, performance
- writing experience/an active writing practice
- improvisational ability

Older performers (40 years +) and familial relations are especially encouraged to apply.

Additional information:

- Performers will be compensated for rehearsals and performances
- Rehearsals will be scheduled based on availability over the course of February and early March
- Performances will be scheduled Wednesday through Saturday 12pm–6pm (Performers need not be available this entire duration; individual performances will be scheduled based on availability)

Auditions (by appointment only):

Saturday, February 1st
1pm–4pm

For an audition appointment, please e-mail James Fry at james@gerardandkelly.com

Please include:

- Names
- Addresses
- E-mails
