Do you love dance? Are you passionate about arts education? Are you a creative thinker and problem solver? Do you demonstrate terrific initiative and like to be challenged? Are you organized, reliable, hard-working and flexible? Do you greet each day with a smile?

Daniel Gwartzman Dance Company, a vibrant, respected New York-based performing and teaching company, is looking to meet a highly-motivated individual with a range of skills to assist the Director and the Company in preparation for an upcoming spring season. Working for the Company provides one with a view into the myriad tasks involved in running a nonprofit. Responsibilities for this position include assisting with production-related tasks including research and program development. A background in business and/or arts management is a plus but is not required. The position's schedule has flexibility, with hours averaging approximately 10-15 per week. The duration of the internship is minimum through June 2, 2014. The position is unpaid.
