103 South Street

Rochester, MI 48307

WHAT TO BRING:

2014 Audition form (not currently available) Resume, Head Shot (photocopy acceptable), Three references that include email and phone contact information

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Auditionees should arrive ready to learn movement phrases from Eisenhower Dance's current repertory. Warm-up will not be provided at noon; however, there will be a ballet master class at 10am on the morning of the audition. Auditionees are invited to attend this class in order to fully warm-up. Fee for the class is $15. Additional studios are also available for self-warm-up. Finalists will be interviewed following the audition. Please register online by filling out the online audition form (available below). Audition fees are not required.

INFORMATION:

Mature dancers should have a strong background in ballet and modern technique, along with performance experience. Ability to relocate to the Detroit area and transportation is required for Company members. Dancers are contracted from Mid-August through June. The contract length is variable but is generally between 35-45 weeks with national touring. Apprentice positions and Summer Intensive acceptance will also be considered during the audition.

A dancer must be a U.S. citizen or have a valid work visa that allows him/her to work for at least two years to be considered. An experienced professional who is unable to attend may submit an audition request with resume and DVD or an online performance link. If viewed positively, the dancer will be invited for a private audition.
