Audition Details:

Sunday January 26th
Gibney Dance Center Studio 8
890 Broadway at 19th st.
12:00pm-2:00pm

Sum Bones Company is holding an audition for upcoming trio works at Gibney Dance Center and WaxWorks at Triskelion Arts. Co-Directors Adrian Galvin and Tyler Patterson are looking for 1-2 dancers who thrive in a critical-thinking environment and who are unafraid to take virtuosic artistic license while accomplishing content-based missions.

About SBC: We are a fresh company inspired by the scientific and artistic study of human anatomy. Our first complete work, 'Generate. Organize. Destory' was a duet created and performed by Adrian and Tyler and was shown December of 2013 at 133rd Arts Center. As the company grows it is our intention to invest in our dancers by not only compensating for their time monetarily, but also investing in the dancers continued education and growth in the company both by company class and workshops as well as significant programs outside of SBC. At this time, however, this work is unpaid.

This audition is for specific performances, but our hope is to find people interested in a longer term relationship with the company. We need to know if you are available for the following performance dates: February 13th, February 25th, and March 23rd. If you have conflicts but are interested in working with us, we would still like to meet you and see you dance, so feel free to attend even if you cannot commit to these three dates.

Please RSVP for this by submitting a photo and resume to: SumBonesCompany@gmail.com
