Pushing progress is seeking 2 dancers for their Professional Development Program. This 8 month program is designed to give consist conditioning and technical training while creating and developing your own career path in real time. Dancers in this program have the technique and maturity for a professional career and are looking for clarity and guidance on what direction to take their career as well as access to the professional network of companies and artists in NYC Contemporary dance.

Monday through Friday the schedule consists of Yoga, Contemporary Mechanics, Ballet, jazz technique, Improvisational Systems, GYROKINESIS®, Conditioning, Anatomy, Approach to Performance and Artistry. The program will also include specialized goal-setting and self-study days spent identifying, creating and developing your career in real time with the NYC contemporary community.

You are:
Looking to enter the contemporary dance world
Have a solid technical base in ballet, contemporary and modern.
Preferably have your BFA in dance or have had comparable dance training/professional dance experience

The pushing progress training program is based on a foundation of self-discovery and self-development:
You are:
Self-motivated and intrigued by who you are and what your purpose is on the planet.
Take responsibility for yourself and your actions and are coach able
Ready to take your confidence and communication to the next level

This is an incredible opportunity to work with some of the top dancers, choreographers and artists in the NYC dance community. To apply please send a cover letter, resume and 2-3 video links of your performance and/or choreography to pushing progress co-director Elani Engelken at Elani@pushingprogress.com. All candidates must first pass a phone interview to be considered for Saturday's audition. After you have submitted all your information you will be contacted to schedule an interview.
