Seeking the actors/dancers for The Fall – a multimedia theatre performance piece that examines the world's relationship to the fall of the Berlin Wall, as we approach the 25th anniversary.

This is a workshop presentation, presented by La MaMa at Flamboyant Theatre. Rehearsals begin October 6, technical period begins on November 8 and performances are November 16 – 23.

Non Equity performers only.

ABOUT THE FALL

The Fall follows Doru Popescu, a young rebel with a noble cause: a world without walls. When the Berlin Wall comes down, and the mother of his newborn daughter dies, Doru is launched into a world of fatherhood, responsibility and the promise of freedom. Surviving the bloody regime of Romanian dictator Nicolae Ceaușescu and the fall of the Iron Curtain, Doru becomes a journalist, open-heartedly voicing his poetic ideals. Through word, movement and video, the piece weaves together Doru's story, his struggle to connect with his daughter, and his plight against the "wall-builders" - a pair of fantastical administrators on a mission to slice up the world by building a multitude of new walls.

CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

Administrators (2 Actors/Dancers – Male or Female)

Fantastical, bigger than life characters. Must be comfortable with movement, preferably with dance background. Dancers who are comfortable with text encouraged to apply. These characters are CEO's of a wall building company. They are the antagonists to Doru, and want to recruit his daughter to become a wall builder.

Doru (Male Actor)

Eastern European or able to play Eastern European. The character starts as an 18 year old and we meet him at 5-year increments until he is 43 years old. Needs to be able to embody energy of this age range. Must be comfortable with delivering text/long monologues, some poetic. He's an aspiring journalist driven by idealism: a world without walls. He struggles to balance his lofty dreams with being a single parent and raising a daughter.
