Darial Sneed

Third Rail Projects is looking for male swing performers for their immersive work Then She Fell, currently running in Brooklyn. It is important for performers to be available to perform beginning December 2014, particularly December 6 and 20, and have flexible availability for evening performances with a 6pm call time. Rehearsals would begin in mid-October and take place between 1-6pm during the day.

We are seeking performers with: a strong contemporary dance background and at least three years of professional performance experience; excellent partnering skills; comfort and experience moving in a site-specific context, for example on architecture (furniture, walls, tables, staircases); the ability to move athletically in aggressive, heightened choreography as well as an ability to execute simple, uninflected pedestrian actions; experience with dynamic partnering; a willingness and comfort using voice and speech; and the ability to embody a character and interact personally and in close proximity to audience members.

Please send your resume (can also be in bio format,) recent headshot, and a photo that best represents you as an artist to jennine@thirdrailprojects.com by Sunday October 12. We will also accept links to online videos of your work. Please include your height and hair color, as well as any blocks of time that you would be unavailable between December 2014 and December 2015. We will select and invite the first round of candidates for an audition with Third Rail Projects' Artistic Directors on Wednesday October 15.
