REGISTRATION "EXTENDED" DEADLINE: December 13, 2014

BalaSole Dance Company is offering emerging and re-emerging dance artists a chance to perform in the company's opening and closing pieces in February 2015 at the Alvin Ailey Citigroup Theater. Selection for this performance opportunity requires registration in BalaSole's 11th Emerging & Re-Emerging Artist Dance Workshop on Sunday, December 14, 2014 from 5:00-7:00PM at New York Live Arts.

During the workshop, which includes the company's trademark collaborative choreography element, several participants will be selected to perform in the company's February 6 & 7, 2015 concert. The goal of this program is to provide emerging and re-emerging artists a unique contemporary dance training, a collaborative experience, networking opportunities, and a chance to perform professionally and get visibility in a prominent NYC dance venue.

For artists selected to perform with the company in February 2015, please note that this is a non-paid performance opportunity.
