IDACO nyc is interested in seeking dance works of international choreographers that have an Italian idea, concept or component. The proposal work could have a collaboration with the following elements: site-specific - art installation - media / technology - live sound - dance theatre - visual and contemporary arts.

IDACO nyc is a new dance platform and a laboratory for the works of International artists with an Italian flavor that succeed in creating unique and original scenic paths through body awareness, movement and the contemporary visual arts.

The Mission is to encourage network, research and contamination with the multiple creative resources of the NYC performing arts field.

The Festival will provide to selected applicants: one performance within the IDACO platform at the SHEEN CENTER in the east village NYC, complete promotion and marketing, photos and video of the performance, technical support and facilities, participation at the opening and closing receptions, workshops and all networking events of the platform.

The IDACO nyc event week is from May 19 to 24, accepted Applicants will have their project presented during the IDACO nyc platform, one of the following dates: May 21-22-23 2015.

The application deadline is extended to Friday April 3th, 2015 at 11.59pm.
