HERE is currently accepting applications to our Summer Sublet Series: Co-op – this hybrid performance series offers bold artists space for up to one week for 2-3 technical rehearsals and 3-5 performances in either our 69 seat Dorothy B Williams theatre in selected weeks from June 8 - August 30 or our 99 seat Mainstage theatre August 17-23.

We are especially interested in receiving dance applications for the August dates.

HERE provides space, equipment, box office services, and technical support. HERE will include the series on our website and in a weekly e-blast to our 19,000 subscribers.

Artists are responsible for production expenses, artist fees, marketing and any additional staff required for their show. Due to programming restrictions, the show should be no longer than 80 minutes.

Tickets are $15. For each performance, the first 20 tickets are a guarantee to HERE, followed by a 50% / 50% split of that evening's box office between HERE and Artist.

Applications are due at noon on Thurs, April 23. Decisions will be announced on Mon, May 4.

Questions about the Series can be directed to programintern@here.org. More can be found at here.org
