Who We Are: Pushing Progress Contemporary Dance is a training program and contemporary dance network in New York City. Our training programs are unique in that we focus on training the whole dancer: mind, body, artist. We do this by offering a 2-year training program, our Professional Development Program and our bi-annual intensives. We also support our local contemporary dance community by providing teaching opportunities for them as well as the yearly performance opportunity through our Annual Showcase Series.

What we are looking for: Pushing Progress seeks an intern with Photography experience who would be interested in taking photographs at our Contemporary Training Program Showcase (May 8th and May 16th) as well as other events we are hosting throughout this year, including but not limited to our summer intensives, winter intensives, and training program events.

Details: The internship would operate on an as-needed basis, and would be in exchange for school credit/and or exchange for classes.

If this sounds like you then we look forward to hearing from you!! Send your resume and cover letter, as well as any further questions to info@pushingprogress.com
