INTERNSHIPS

a?? Brooklyn, NY
a?? Part Time/Volunteer
a?? Reports to Company Manager or Artistic Director a?? Minimum experience: undergraduate/graduate

DESCRIPTION

The mission of Kyle Abraham/Abraham.In.Motion is to create an evocative interdisciplinary body of work. Born into hip-hop culture in the late 1970s and grounded in Abraham's artistic upbringing in classical cello, piano, and the visual arts, the goal of the movement is to delve into identity in relation to a personal history. The work entwines a sensual and provocative vocabulary with a strong emphasis on sound, human behavior and all things visual in an effort to create an avenue for personal investigation and exposing that on stage. A.I.M. is a representation of dancers from various disciplines and diverse personal backgrounds. Combined together, these individualities create movement that is manipulated and molded into something fresh and unique.

Interns support AIM's staff and Company of dancers during the 2015-2016 touring season. Candidates must possess strong communication, writing, and computer skills and must be detail-oriented and organized. Applicants should have an interest in arts administration. All interns will be exposed to the daily functions of running a dance company through assisting staff on administrative and artistic efforts.

Interns must be willing to commit a minimum of 12-20 hours per week. It is preferred, but not required, that interns be available for a term of up to four months. Positions are available now through December.
