Anywho! I am looking for more talented men and women to work with to further this projects goal of a published book of the collection.

All I need from you is a quick email telling me a bit about your dance experience along with a headshot, full body performance shot, and if possible please send a video of a recent performance as well.

You can send emails to david@davidperkinsphotography.com, and please include in the subject line HOME STAGE.

Looking forward to hearing from everyone! By the way, nearly everyone I've already worked with I met via this site!
