Movement Research is one of the world's leading laboratories for the investigation of dance and movement-based forms. Valuing the individual artist, their creative process and their vital role within society, Movement Research is dedicated to the creation and implementation of free and low-cost programs that nurture and instigate discourse and experimentation. Movement Research strives to reflect the cultural, political and economic diversity of its moving community, including artists and audiences alike.

Movement Research offers internship opportunities to dancers of all levels, ages 18 and up. We are currently hiring for a Fall development internship position to run November 2015-May 2016 with the opportunity to extend. For a 10-15 hour commitment per week, Movement Research provides interns with free access to classes at Eden's Expressway, Danspace Project and Randy Warshaw Studio.

OFFICE INTERNSHIP with MOVEMENT RESEARCH

Development Intern (November 1, 2015 - May 1, 2015)

The Development Intern assists the Development Manager with tasks that vary by season (including support for grant deadlines, end-of-year giving, gala, Artist Advisory Council and Board) and is responsible for entering donations into the database, assisting with program tracking, taking minutes at various meetings and grant/artist opportunity research. Additionally, the ideal candidate possesses a strong interest in engaging contemporary and experimental dance and/or performance work through language. Experience with Mac software, Word, Excel and Filemaker strongly encouraged.

If interested, please submit your cover letter and resume to info@movementresearch.org with the subject line, "Development Intern Position." Resumes should focus on work experience and include all relevant computer skills, technological experience, finance/cash register experience, and whatever else you feel is applicable to your areas of interest.
