IDACO nyc is an event week for the works of Choreographers and Visual Artists that have an idea or concept that relates to Italian culture.

IDACO's mission is to connect Italian and international choreographers and artists who live or visit New York City with the local contemporary art scene. We want to encourage networking and artistic research between the multiple creative resources of NYC performing arts. IDACO will build relationships and offer a supportive, inspiring, creative environment for visual & video artists, musicians, sculptors, photographers, and all artists who are working with the "art of movement".

We aim to offer a mainstream artistic platform with the goal to unite, introduce and enrich the Italian community in America, cross cultural boundaries and nurture a sense of global identity.
