Looking for a James Brown style choreographer/dancer for a short term event project for one of our clients in NYC. You don't have to look like James Brown but you do need to move like him and have a similar energy and swag.

Pay starts at $15 an hour with an estimate of 10+ hours for this project which will take place over 1-2 weeks. This is a somewhat flexible schedule and you may work morning, nights or weekends. Please send a link to a video with your best James Brown moves, your name, email and phone number. No phone calls please. Should we think you are a fit we will be glad to set up a call and tell you more. We hope to find someone that can start this week.

Thank you for your interest.
